1. He has taught a wide variety of undergraduate mathematics courses at Washington State University, Fresno Pacific University, and, since 1995, at Whitworth University. He received his BA in mathematics from the University of Colorado and his MS and PhD in applied mathematics from Harvard University. He has written technology materials for leading calculus and linear algebra textbooks including the Instructor's Mathematica Manual for Linear Algebra and Its Applications by David C. Briggs, Lyle Cochran, Bernard Gillett, Eric Schulz . Sequences and Infinite Series 11. This copy was provided for students who are financially troubled but want studeing to learn. His expertise is in mathematical analysis, and he has a special interest in the integration of technology and mathematics education.
